

HEIDELBERG

CHAMBER OF BUSINESS BESIGHEIDSKAMER

Purpose of the Heidelberg Chamber of Business

The Chamber is an independent, non-political, subscription-based, association dedicated to promoting a business-friendly environment. Our member is drawn from every sector of the economy, and range from independent entrepreneurs to the large corporate. We promote enterprise development, skills development, and business advisory services. We also interact with the greater Chamber movement SACCI the voice of business which also includes debate with government

Goal of the Heidelberg Chamber of Business

To create regular network opportunities
Free monthly business advisory awareness for SMME's
Promotions & Advertising for your business
Chamber Certificate to display in your office/ workplace
Annual Excellent Business Awards
Free Monthly newsletter on Website
Business Information on Website
Business Information Sessions Ad Hoc
Support amongst members via Profit Clubs
Membership for any size business - no matter how small or how large the business

Discounted rates negotiated for members at certain institutions.

Support a free enterprise economy

Liaise with the local and regional authorities

To be the voice of business nationally through affiliation with SACCI

Benefits

In a society where government is not the primary driver of economic growth, the private sector owns this responsibility. The Chamber of Business promotes healthy business ethics and share information through various means such as :

Visits to local businesses

Workshops

Training

Communication Events

Networking, breakfast, lunches and dinners.

Website

Mission

It is the chamber mission to promote the business interest of its members, to create an investor friendly climate, to promote excellent service and governance in public administration and to facilitate business connections and collaboration between its members.

The Heidelberg Chamber of Business support the drive towards promoting good practices in business, and raising levels of awareness of the need to fight the unacceptable level of corruption and malpractice in the country which is impeding growth, job creation & economic development.

What is in it for you?

The Heidelberg Chamber of Business can create a voice for your business. All business involved in the business chamber benefits equal from new opportunities and relevant information. It has a long term vision to walk the extra mile with you. Creating opportunities to improve skills. Supplying you with the necessary information by means of qualified speakers of note e.g. Economists, Advanced Trainers in the Marketing field, Training courses etc.